Church Holds Shrove Fete

A traditional Shrove Tuesday pancake breakfast marked the end of the carnival season and the eve of Lent for St. Andrew's Episcopal church, 1432 Engracia avenue, on Tuesday, February 14. Sponsored by St. Elizabeth's Guild, with Mrs. Clarence Andrews, chairman, the breakfast was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank P. Church, 2419 251st street, Lomita.

The tradition of pancake eating on Shrove Tuesday has evolved from early England, where no meat was eaten during the Lenten season. All household fats and greases were gathered on Shrove Tuesday, called "Fast Nacht" in Germany and "Mardi Gras" in France, and used in making pancakes. Gaiety and frivolity reigned on the day preceding Ash Wednesday, centering around village pancake races, pancake-eating contests, and other activities.

GIRLS WIN TV PRIZE

Dee Dee Underdown, Charlene Underdown, and Judy Ballaris of 18520 Roslin ave., Torrance, were contestants on Bob Yeakel's amateur television show recently. They were judged winners and made a second TV appearance the following day. They were awarded a trophy for their acrobatic routine.

Sharing the pride in the event were their teacher Bob Cole of Inglewood, Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Underdown and family and Mr. and Mrs. Ballaris and family of Torrance.

Mrs. Walter Talley, president, conducted the business meeting at which time the following were elected as a nominating committee to select candidates for the coming year: Mesdames George Mackay, chairman; Joe Stahl, Al Strange, Richard Groverman and Jane Rye, principal.

Mrs. Robert Oster planned and presented an excellent program with a Hawaiian theme. She welcomed past presidents and guests and presented each with a colorful lei made by members of the association.

Those welcomed were Mesdames Jane Rye, H. Jensen, L. A. Stump, E. M. Mosher, R. L. Lewis, C. A. Hatfield, K. Mowry, E. E. Woodward, F. C. Elliott, D. J. Cressey, Joe Stahl, Ethen Schmidt, Harold Jack, Lloyd Powell, Walter Talley and Phoebe Skyes, charter member.

Mrs. Ruth Borden, 3rd grade teacher, decorated the table with a lovely Hawaiian floral centerpiece.

Bonnie Kuhn, Nancy Loy, Donna McGhee, Eddie Holzenbuhler, Mike Bowman, and Mrs. Corky "Hilo" Tregarthen entertained.

The men's chorus sang several songs after which cake and coffee was served by the new kindergarten mothers.
